Order Tidwell to Bring Out Union Records

Judge Clarence N. Hanson of Dept. 34 of the Superior Court of Los Angeles issued a nunc pro tunc order requiring Haskell Tidwell's Retail Clerk's Union to produce certain Union records that it had previously failed to bring forward under a subpoena, according to a notice received from the court by J. Stuart Neary, attorney for the San Pedro Business Men, Associated.

The original subpoena called for Tidwell to bring to some deposition sessions some correspondence concerning picketing of the plaintiffs' stores, minutes of union meetings where the allegedly illegal picketing was discussed, and certain other pertinent records.

Tidwell refused to produce these records at the deposition hearings. At the same time Tidwell refused to answer any of the questions asked of him.

Following Tidwell's refusal to answer these questions, Judge Hanson ordered him to answer a majority of them. The Judge failed to specify, however, that Tidwell also should bring along his subpoenaed union records.

Archbishop to Address Holy Name Society

The Most Reverend J. Francis A. McIntyre, Archbishop of Los Angeles, will bring a special message to representatives of 100,000 Holy Name men of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles at their 27th Annual Convention to be held at St. John the Evangelist parish hall, 60th Street and Victoria Avenue, Los Angeles at 3:30 p.m. next Sunday.

It will be the first appearance of Archbishop McIntyre before a group of Holy Name men of this Archdiocese consisting of delegates from 219 parish Holy Name societies in four countries.

The nunc pro tunc order—in layman's language meaning "I order now what I should have ordered then"—cleared up the oversight.

Fireworks at Coliseum on Two Evenings

A radical departure in staging their annual fireworks show that will benefit residents of suburban and city areas alike was announced this week by the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion.

The Legion will hold the traditional fireworks spectacle this year on two days—July 4 and 5—instead of only on the Fourth as in the past.

July 4 has been named "Suburban Night" and special blocks of reserved seats will be set aside for residents living in outlying areas. In other years, difficulties in obtaining tickets prevented many children and their parents who resided out of town from seeing the show.

County Central Committees to Be Due Friday

Official count of the local ballots cast in the June 1 consolidated primary election is under way this week at the Hall of Records.

Until it is completed early next week no returns will be available on the personnel of the various county central committees.

Chairman Raymond V. Darby of the board of supervisors said it would take a week or 10 days to complete the canvass. To be counted are some 6500 absentee ballots which had to be in by last Saturday.

In only a few cases was there any competition or more than seven persons seeking the office of committeeman.

CHARTER AMENDMENT

In the fifth proposed amendment to the Los Angeles County Charter, the 1948 County Grand Jury today asked the Board of Supervisors to put before voters in the November general election the placing of juvenile hall under direct jurisdiction of the County Probation Officer John Zuck.
